THE LEAGUE

MVP4Life's Upper Deck League provides college players the best opportunity to play summer baseball in a highly competitive league. Everyone knows that Omaha is the place to be to see great collegiate baseball. Now players can stay right here in Omaha and enjoy some fierce competition. MVP4Life's Upper Deck League is one of the premier college summer leagues in the country.

THE GOAL

MVP4Life's goal is to provide players the opportunity to showcase their skills in front of area coaches and scouts while playing against high quality teams with regular season schedules of 20-30 games. We will ensure professional coaching and facilities, recruit college players and provide player housing and employment opportunities while continuing participation in the National Baseball Congress's Regional and World Series, and promote community relations.

THE COST

The Upper Deck League provides a tremendous opportunity for college players, but also comes at cost. MVP4Life is searching for corporate sponsors who want to be involved with the league, and partner with us to make it all possible. If you would like more information on sponsorship of the league, please contact MVP4Life at 398-1238.

THE COMMITMENT

MVP4Life and the City of Omaha are committed to bring the highest level of collegiate summer baseball to the Omaha Area. The goal remains for a team in the league to bring an NBC National Championship to Omaha.
